

THE SHANNON BRYAN
Memorial Scholarship

"The hardest thing with writing is to begin. Finding the first word to write is in itself a victory. It becomes only natural that many more will follow even if you don't know where they will take you. When the last word is written you will find yourself wanting more."

- Shannon Dawn Bryan

Take your brave first step.

SHANNON DAWN BRYAN
April 11, 1974-August 25, 2023

Shannon was born with the ultimate 'Gift of Gab' which was a defining feature of her positive and vibrant and loving personality. She had that 'certain something' which drew people to her, helping her form connections effortlessly. She loved hearing other people's stories, and sharing hers.

With her own own sense of spirituality and open heart, Shannon danced to the beat of her own drum, finding magic, beauty and Creator in places others might not look. She embraced those she met along her journey without judgement or prejudice.

Hailing from a long line of strong Indigenous women who faced life's obstacles head on, and having four sisters, it is only fitting that her scholarship be for young indigenous women striving to find their path in the world they wish to create.
